Once again, I’d just like to say thank you to all of you that have supported our awesome programs and especially our troops and their canine partners.

SOUTHWEST ASIA -- Staff Sgt. Garry Laub, 823rd Security Forces Squadron, plays with Kelly, Air Force military working dog, before his flight into Iraq at an air base in Southwest Asia, Jan. 13. Sergeant Laub played with Kelly to calm her down before they boarded the aircraft.

Staff Sgt. Garry Laub, deploying from the 823rd Security Forces Squadron at Moody AFB, said it's easy to think of working dogs as equipment, but they're closer to fellow Airman than a rifle or aircraft.

"Overall, I think the military views the dog as equipment, and any handler will tell you that's not the case," he said. "My dog and I have been together two and half years. We don't have to tell each other what to do. She just knows what I want her to do. I don't even have to give her commands. To me, they're not really dogs. They're like an extra body out there that you have to take care of, because they're taking care of you."

Sergeant Germann and Edo are from Moody Air Force Base, Georgia. This is SSgt Germann's fourth tour to Iraq, and his first as a dog handler.

U. S. Army Freedom Team Salute Commendation

Old Dawgs and Pups has just been recognized for it's "Partnership between the Army, its Soldiers, their families and their communities – a partnership as old as the nation itself" according to the citation that we just received.

Our program was submitted by SSG Eric Hooker, Kennel Master, at FOB Rustimayh, Baghdad, Iraq and we officially received the U. S. Army Freedom Team Salute Commendation.

SSG Hooker was deployed from Fort Jackson, South Carolina. He was also teamed with MWD Butch – H414 while assigned to the HHD 95th Military Police Battalion during 2007 – 2008.

While there SSG also took great care of three more of our pups, SSgt Zach Burt, SSgt Travis Hazleton, and TSgt Danny Spaide. SSG Hooker was paired with Ernie Ayala during his tour.

Dear Bill Cummings:

You have been submitted for a U.S. Army Freedom Team Salute Commendation by SSG Eric Hooker for your contributions to our Army community.

America has always called upon the Army to do the hard jobs, and its Soldiers answer the call to duty. Ours is a free Nation – the standard-bearer of freedom for millions of less fortunate people – because our freedoms are guaranteed by great Soldiers and the families and communities by their side.

Ours is an Army of tradition. Our greatest tradition is selfless service to our Country, and in that service we ask our Soldiers to carry out the tough missions that take them away from home, community and family. Today, Soldiers answer the call to defend us against new kinds of threats. Deployments have increased in frequency and length in order to maintain our commitments to freedom, to our way of life and to the American family. The Global War on Terrorism is one that touches us all – and one that we must win.

As Soldiers serve, the support of families and communities sustains them so they can do what must be done to protect our freedoms. Our Nation would not have the service of Soldiers without your support and patriotism. As an Army Supporter, you make a difference to our Soldiers and to our Country.

Please accept the enclosed Army lapel pin. It symbolizes the partnership between our Army, its Soldiers, their families and our communities – a partnership as old as the Nation itself. We hope that you will wear this pin with pride, as a statement of our shared commitment to support America's Soldiers.

Sincerely,
